

The Sambar Scholarship Endowment (Scholarship Application Cover Sheet)

About the Scholarship: Chakib “Chuck” Sambar former President of the Glendale Unified School District (GUSD) Board of Education and educator, had long felt that there were many students capable of continuing their education beyond high school, but were held back due to financial constraints. His wife, Lois Neil-Sambar, was also a teacher in the GUSD and a principal at Rosemont Middle School. Together, they administered the Glendale Scholarship Endowment, now known as the Sambar Scholarship Endowment, which provides scholarships to local high school graduates pursuing a higher education.
