

“How to Make a Difference in Your Community on the New Political Landscape”

Join us for a fun evening about how you can make a difference! Hear from area nonprofits and experience what it's like to make a grant toward their cause!

March 30, 2017 Community Event
with Guest Speaker Dan Schnur

Dan is one of California's leading political and media strategists. He writes a weekly column on California politics for the San Francisco Chronicle, and also writes political commentary and op-eds for a variety of media outlets, including the Washington Post, the New York Times, the Wall Street Journal and the Los Angeles Times. He has also been an analyst and political commentator for CNN, MSNBC, Fox News, and National Public Radio. In addition, Dan has been an advisor to foundations such as the William and Melinda Gates Foundation and the James Irvine Foundation on K-12 education and college and workforce preparedness efforts.

Thursday, March 30

Free—Open to the Public

7 to 8:30 p.m.

6:30 p.m. refreshments and check-in

The Brand Library &
Art Center

1601 W. Mountain St.
Glendale, CA 91201

Please RSVP at info@cfverdugos.org

Or call
818-241-8040

Community Foundation of the Verdugos
www.cfverdugos.org

Serving the Community for Over 60 Years
501(c)(3) public nonprofit #95-6068137